CEO, Art of Migration and Registered Migration Agent

BBusMan, BSc, MEnvMan, GCertAusMigrationLawPrac

Rochelle holds degrees in business management and science from The University of Queensland and qualifications in migration law from Australian National University. For the past six years Rochelle has worked in the field of migration with Multicultural Development Association helping people from all over the world settle in Australia. Through this work, Rochelle has worked closely with the Afghan Community in Queensland. With the launch of Art of Migration, Rochelle is now drawing upon her professional qualifications and extensive practical experiences to offer a migration service unlike any other.

Rochelle understands that the decision to move to and settle in Australia is a significant one. She is passionate about ensuring her clients are guided and supported in making what can be a challenging transition, and she is committed to providing them with a high quality personalised service, ensuring that their migration journey to Australia is as seamless and successful as possible. Every client has individual and specific needs, so Rochelle designs and tailors her client services to suit the specific requirements of each client. She deliberately maintains a small client portfolio to ensure that each client receives her undivided attention.

Rochelle specialises in humanitarian and protection visas but can also assist with family visas, skilled visas and sponsored visas to Australia.
